Fall Fun for Families Nov. 9 at Adkins Arboretum

Celebrate fall at Adkins Arboretum! On Sat., Nov. 9, join naturalist and educator Jenny Houghton for Fall Fun for Families, a wonderful opportunity to enjoy the outdoors and learn about the fall season.

All ages are welcome for this fun-filled program that includes a nature hike along the Arboretum’s scenic woodland paths, stopping for a marshmallow roast at Paw Paw Playground, the Arboretum’s natural playspace. Families will enjoy fall-inspired games in the meadow, search for leaves on a forest scavenger hunt, and paint a pumpkin pansy planter to take home.

The program runs from 2 to 4 p.m. The fee for members is $5 per person or $20 per family; the non-member fee is $8 per person or $25 per family. Advance registration is required at adkinsarboretum.org or by calling 410.634.2847, ext. 0.

Adkins Arboretum is a 400-acre native garden and preserve at the headwaters of the Tuckahoe Creek in Caroline County. Open year round, the Arboretum offers educational programs for all ages about nature and gardening. Through its Campaign to Build a Green Legacy, it will build the W. Flaccus and Ruth B. Stifel Center at Adkins Arboretum and a “green” entranceway to broaden educational offerings and research initiatives promoting best practices in conservation and land stewardship.
