Shore Shakespeare Brings Macbeth to Adkins Arboretum This Weekend

Shore Shakespeare Company opens its spring season with three performances of the Bard's classic tragedy Macbeth this weekend at Adkins Arboretum. Directed by Shelagh Grasso, this famous play explores the darker side of the human soul as the title characters confront ambition, temptation, prophesy and murder.

Featuring Greg Minahan as Macbeth, Thane of Glamis, and Avra Sullivan as his wife, Lady Macbeth, the production features a seasoned and talented cast and is presented to take advantage of the outdoor setting. Actors move in and through the audience, integrating them into the action of the play. The audience is encouraged to bring a chair or blanket and a picnic.

Performances are Fri. and Sat., May 13 and 14 at 7 p.m. and Sun., May 15 at 3 p.m. Tickets are $15 and may be reserved at adkinsarboretum.org or by calling 410-634-2847, ext 0. Information about the production is also available at shoreshakespeare.com.

Shore Shakespeare is a pan-community theatre group established to present the classic works of the theatrical repertoire and to encourage its audiences to support local community theatre all over the Shore.
