

IN SEARCH OF SHELTER

The word "skunk" comes from the Algonquin word "senganku." At this time of year, skunks are busy preparing their winter dens.

Many animals keep warm in cold weather by burrowing in dens, hollow trees, and fallen logs. Squirrels shelter in leafy nests tucked in the forest canopy.

How many animal homes can you find on your nature walk??!

