Mark your calendars!

Fall Open House & Plant Sale
September 7–9

Magic in the Meadow
Saturday, September 22

Smithsonian Museum Day
FEE ADMISSION
Saturday, September 22

Fall Celebrating Natives’ Garden Tour
Saturday, October 6

Fairylights
Sunday, October 13

Holiday Open House & Wreath Sale
Saturday, December 1

A Longwood Christmas bus trip

To view the plants in our everyday environment with fresh eyes and deeper understanding. There will be a reception to meet the artist on Saturday, August 18 from 3 to 5 p.m.

Easton photographer Matthew Moore will exhibit works from his Ten Incognitas series in the Visitor’s Center July 31 through September 28. While he was an artist-in-residence at the Joshua Tree Highlands AIR program in Joshua Tree, CA, his striking photographs explore the powerful beauty of the desert landscape and the paradoxical ways humans interact with it. Used as a training ground for soldiers bound for Iraq and Afghanistan, its stark and stunning topography also draws artists looking for inspiration and others seeking retreat from the pressures of our current cultures. There will be a reception to meet the artist on Saturday, August 18 from 3 to 5 p.m.

Easton photographer Matthew Moore will exhibit works from his Ten Incognitas series in the Visitor’s Center July 31 through September 28. While he was an artist-in-residence at the Joshua Tree Highlands AIR program in Joshua Tree, CA, his striking photographs explore the powerful beauty of the desert landscape and the paradoxical ways humans interact with it. Used as a training ground for soldiers bound for Iraq and Afghanistan, its stark and stunning topography also draws artists looking for inspiration and others seeking retreat from the pressures of our current cultures. There will be a reception to meet the artist on Saturday, August 18 from 3 to 5 p.m.

Easton photographer Matthew Moore will exhibit works from his Ten Incognitas series in the Visitor’s Center July 31 through September 28. While he was an artist-in-residence at the Joshua Tree Highlands AIR program in Joshua Tree, CA, his striking photographs explore the powerful beauty of the desert landscape and the paradoxical ways humans interact with it. Used as a training ground for soldiers bound for Iraq and Afghanistan, its stark and stunning topography also draws artists looking for inspiration and others seeking retreat from the pressures of our current cultures. There will be a reception to meet the artist on Saturday, August 18 from 3 to 5 p.m.

Easton photographer Matthew Moore will exhibit works from his Ten Incognitas series in the Visitor’s Center July 31 through September 28. While he was an artist-in-residence at the Joshua Tree Highlands AIR program in Joshua Tree, CA, his striking photographs explore the powerful beauty of the desert landscape and the paradoxical ways humans interact with it. Used as a training ground for soldiers bound for Iraq and Afghanistan, its stark and stunning topography also draws artists looking for inspiration and others seeking retreat from the pressures of our current cultures. There will be a reception to meet the artist on Saturday, August 18 from 3 to 5 p.m.

Easton photographer Matthew Moore will exhibit works from his Ten Incognitas series in the Visitor’s Center July 31 through September 28. While he was an artist-in-residence at the Joshua Tree Highlands AIR program in Joshua Tree, CA, his striking photographs explore the powerful beauty of the desert landscape and the paradoxical ways humans interact with it. Used as a training ground for soldiers bound for Iraq and Afghanistan, its stark and stunning topography also draws artists looking for inspiration and others seeking retreat from the pressures of our current cultures. There will be a reception to meet the artist on Saturday, August 18 from 3 to 5 p.m.

Easton photographer Matthew Moore will exhibit works from his Ten Incognitas series in the Visitor’s Center July 31 through September 28. While he was an artist-in-residence at the Joshua Tree Highlands AIR program in Joshua Tree, CA, his striking photographs explore the powerful beauty of the desert landscape and the paradoxical ways humans interact with it. Used as a training ground for soldiers bound for Iraq and Afghanistan, its stark and stunning topography also draws artists looking for inspiration and others seeking retreat from the pressures of our current cultures. There will be a reception to meet the artist on Saturday, August 18 from 3 to 5 p.m.

Easton photographer Matthew Moore will exhibit works from his Ten Incognitas series in the Visitor’s Center July 31 through September 28. While he was an artist-in-residence at the Joshua Tree Highlands AIR program in Joshua Tree, CA, his striking photographs explore the powerful beauty of the desert landscape and the paradoxical ways humans interact with it. Used as a training ground for soldiers bound for Iraq and Afghanistan, its stark and stunning topography also draws artists looking for inspiration and others seeking retreat from the pressures of our current cultures. There will be a reception to meet the artist on Saturday, August 18 from 3 to 5 p.m.

Easton photographer Matthew Moore will exhibit works from his Ten Incognitas series in the Visitor’s Center July 31 through September 28. While he was an artist-in-residence at the Joshua Tree Highlands AIR program in Joshua Tree, CA, his striking photographs explore the powerful beauty of the desert landscape and the paradoxical ways humans interact with it. Used as a training ground for soldiers bound for Iraq and Afghanistan, its stark and stunning topography also draws artists looking for inspiration and others seeking retreat from the pressures of our current cultures. There will be a reception to meet the artist on Saturday, August 18 from 3 to 5 p.m.

Easton photographer Matthew Moore will exhibit works from his Ten Incognitas series in the Visitor’s Center July 31 through September 28. While he was an artist-in-residence at the Joshua Tree Highlands AIR program in Joshua Tree, CA, his striking photographs explore the powerful beauty of the desert landscape and the paradoxical ways humans interact with it. Used as a training ground for soldiers bound for Iraq and Afghanistan, its stark and stunning topography also draws artists looking for inspiration and others seeking retreat from the pressures of our current cultures. There will be a reception to meet the artist on Saturday, August 18 from 3 to 5 p.m.

Easton photographer Matthew Moore will exhibit works from his Ten Incognitas series in the Visitor’s Center July 31 through September 28. While he was an artist-in-residence at the Joshua Tree Highlands AIR program in Joshua Tree, CA, his striking photographs explore the powerful beauty of the desert landscape and the paradoxical ways humans interact with it. Used as a training ground for soldiers bound for Iraq and Afghanistan, its stark and stunning topography also draws artists looking for inspiration and others seeking retreat from the pressures of our current cultures. There will be a reception to meet the artist on Saturday, August 18 from 3 to 5 p.m.

Easton photographer Matthew Moore will exhibit works from his Ten Incognitas series in the Visitor’s Center July 31 through September 28. While he was an artist-in-residence at the Joshua Tree Highlands AIR program in Joshua Tree, CA, his striking photographs explore the powerful beauty of the desert landscape and the paradoxical ways humans interact with it. Used as a training ground for soldiers bound for Iraq and Afghanistan, its stark and stunning topography also draws artists looking for inspiration and others seeking retreat from the pressures of our current cultures. There will be a reception to meet the artist on Saturday, August 18 from 3 to 5 p.m.

Easton photographer Matthew Moore will exhibit works from his Ten Incognitas series in the Visitor’s Center July 31 through September 28. While he was an artist-in-residence at the Joshua Tree Highlands AIR program in Joshua Tree, CA, his striking photographs explore the powerful beauty of the desert landscape and the paradoxical ways humans interact with it. Used as a training ground for soldiers bound for Iraq and Afghanistan, its stark and stunning topography also draws artists looking for inspiration and others seeking retreat from the pressures of our current cultures. There will be a reception to meet the artist on Saturday, August 18 from 3 to 5 p.m.
NATIVE PLANT PROPAGATION WORKSHOP SERIES
In keeping with the Arboretum’s Native Plant Initiative, this series of hands-on workshops feature native plants. All programs are led by Leslie Carl and are held at the nursery. Advance registration is required.

Workshop
Saturday, May 12, 9:30–11:30 a.m. Fee: $35 per program
If you’d like to learn more about how native plants are propagated, you’ll learn about plant propagation requirements, methods, and materials. This workshop is designed for those who have already started and collected locally last season. Plants started by workshop participants will be given out for the buy both production and evaluation in our Native Plant Propagation program.

Native Plant Material Cuttings Workshop
Saturday, July 7, 9:30–12:30 p.m. Fee: $35 per program
Not all plants are easy to grow from seed, and in some cases it works better to start them from cuttings! Learn about different types of cuttings, which species can be grown by this method, which materials to have on hand, and necessary growing environment. Then try your hands at propagating native plants from cuttings in our nursery. This workshop is designed for both ornamental horticulture and sustainable landscaping.

Collecting & Processing Native Seeds Workshop (Threshold of Nature)
Monday, October 1, 1–4 p.m. Fee: $65 per program
Join us as we embark on the seed harvest efforts of the Native Plant Propagation Initiative by collecting, sorting, sieving, and storing seed for future use. It will be the perfect way to wrap up the season’s work and allow you the opportunity to enjoy the beauty of nature.

YOUTH PROGRAMS SUMMER NATURE CAMPS
For the past fourteen years, Adkins Arboretum’s Summer Nature Camps have given children the chance to enjoy the world in which they live. They’ve learned about native plants and animals, sensitive landscaping methods. As a columnist for the Baltimore Sun, she has written about local events and features, including the enduring power of love in all its many expressions. Wendy, playful, and dear to many, her story is a compelling one about the Arboretum’s educational mission and O’Lenick’s famous courtyards together. It’s a legacy worth safeguarding and passing on to the next generation. Join us in the extraction of stone, fact, and memory and understand how they spoke to each other in their volunteer roles.

Arts & Crafting
Barns & Chimes
Sunday, July 28 & 29, 1–3 p.m. Fee: $75 per program
Learn to make your own unique garden bells and chimes with ceramic bellmaker Denise Mallineh. Denise will demonstrate a few building blocks, including unique designs and methods, and finished bells. All bells will be fired at the end of the day, and designed to be frost resistant.

Felted Flowers
Sunday, May 6, noon-4 p.m. Fee: $85 per program
All materials provided. This workshop led by Margo C. Turner will present a new challenge building block to felters. We’ll emphasize color and meaning. Each student will create their own flower sculpture, weaving, and exploring new territories. Materials are limited; all materials will be given out. We ask that you arrive at 10 a.m. and have your materials with you.

Bookbinding & Monoprinting—Field Notebooks
Sunday, May 20, noon-4 p.m. Fee: $85 per program
All materials provided. For this workshop led by Margo C. Turner, each participant will create a one-of-a-kind handmade book suitable for writing, as embellishing, and teaching for years to come. Participants will learn the art of bookbinding, the process of text to felt wool, assembly, and final bindings.

Photographing Flowers with your iPhone
Sunday, May 23, noon-4 p.m. Fee: $85 per program
In this three-hour workshop with Karen Klimentid, you’ll learn phone photography capture techniques and how to use the Aperture native photographers’ lens in the next generation. iPhone. We’ll also explore capturing images and micro lenses and a workshop on a photo walk in the Adkins Arboretum. Everyone is welcome. prerequisite: A working knowledge of your iPhone 4 or later, with specific emphasis on newer iPhone generation.

Forest Music
Thursday, June 14, 3-4 p.m. Fee: $30 per program
Join us for an evening of light music, a cash bar and a relaxing atmosphere. All proceeds welcome donations. A unique improvisatory experience in the forest. These innovative musicians will respond to each other's playing within a musical conversation beginning with the trees.

Bean Garden with Bull and Goat Saturday, June 29, 3-5 p.m. Fee: $35 per program
Come together with Bull and Goat from Snow's Farm Pot焊接 and Goat from the Simmons Family to explore nature and history. As the day cools down, take a leisurely tour using the Adkins Arboretum's woodland paths and join in a game or two. Homemade root beer will also be offered.

Summer Nature Camps have given children the enduring power of love in all its many expressions.

Adkins Arboretum’s woodland, meadow, stream, and wetland habitats. Plants of interest include mountain laurel, beech, tulip tree, pink lady’s slipper, Solomon’s seal, and may apple. Treefrogs, salamanders, butterflies, dragonflies, and more. All ages are welcome.

Delaware Botanic Garden & Rehoboth Beach Naturalist Center Monday, July 1, 10 a.m. Fee: $30 per program
All programs are led by Leslie Carl and are held at the nursery. Advance registration is required. For more information, visit adkinsarboretum.org or email Visitor & Volunteer Coordinator Robyn Affron at raffron@adkinsarboretum.org.

Youth programs are asked to join their children throughout the camp. Join us for an exploration of the Arboretum grounds by foot or train. Special delicious food is prepared for the group. Each day there will be a unique improvisatory experience in the forest. These innovative musicians will respond to each other's playing within a musical conversation beginning with the trees.

Forest Music
Thursday, June 14, 3-4 p.m. Fee: $30 per program
Join us for an evening of light music, a cash bar and a relaxing atmosphere. All proceeds welcome donations.

Bean Garden with Bull and Goat Saturday, June 29, 3-5 p.m. Fee: $35 per program
Come together with Bull and Goat from Snow's Farm Pot焊接和Goat from the Simmons Family to explore nature and history. As the day cools down, take a leisurely tour using the Adkins Arboretum's woodland paths and join in a game or two. Homemade root beer will also be offered.

Forest Music
Thursday, June 14, 3-4 p.m. Fee: $30 per program
Join us for an evening of light music, a cash bar and a relaxing atmosphere. All proceeds welcome donations.

Bean Garden with Bull and Goat Saturday, June 29, 3-5 p.m. Fee: $35 per program
Come together with Bull and Goat from Snow's Farm Pot焊接和Goat from the Simmons Family to explore nature and history. As the day cools down, take a leisurely tour using the Adkins Arboretum's woodland paths and join in a game or two. Homemade root beer will also be offered.

Forest Music
Thursday, June 14, 3-4 p.m. Fee: $30 per program
Join us for an evening of light music, a cash bar and a relaxing atmosphere. All proceeds welcome donations.

Bean Garden with Bull and Goat Saturday, June 29, 3-5 p.m. Fee: $35 per program
Come together with Bull and Goat from Snow's Farm Pot焊接和Goat from the Simmons Family to explore nature and history. As the day cools down, take a leisurely tour using the Adkins Arboretum's woodland paths and join in a game or two. Homemade root beer will also be offered.

Forest Music
Thursday, June 14, 3-4 p.m. Fee: $30 per program
Join us for an evening of light music, a cash bar and a relaxing atmosphere. All proceeds welcome donations.

Bean Garden with Bull and Goat Saturday, June 29, 3-5 p.m. Fee: $35 per program
Come together with Bull and Goat from Snow's Farm Pot焊接和Goat from the Simmons Family to explore nature and history. As the day cools down, take a leisurely tour using the Adkins Arboretum's woodland paths and join in a game or two. Homemade root beer will also be offered.

Forest Music
Thursday, June 14, 3-4 p.m. Fee: $30 per program
Join us for an evening of light music, a cash bar and a relaxing atmosphere. All proceeds welcome donations.

Bean Garden with Bull and Goat Saturday, June 29, 3-5 p.m. Fee: $35 per program
Come together with Bull and Goat from Snow's Farm Pot焊接和Goat from the Simmons Family to explore nature and history. As the day cools down, take a leisurely tour using the Adkins Arboretum's woodland paths and join in a game or two. Homemade root beer will also be offered.

Forest Music
Thursday, June 14, 3-4 p.m. Fee: $30 per program
Join us for an evening of light music, a cash bar and a relaxing atmosphere. All proceeds welcome donations.

Bean Garden with Bull and Goat Saturday, June 29, 3-5 p.m. Fee: $35 per program
Come together with Bull and Goat from Snow's Farm Pot焊接和Goat from the Simmons Family to explore nature and history. As the day cools down, take a leisurely tour using the Adkins Arboretum's woodland paths and join in a game or two. Homemade root beer will also be offered.

Forest Music
Thursday, June 14, 3-4 p.m. Fee: $30 per program
Join us for an evening of light music, a cash bar and a relaxing atmosphere. All proceeds welcome donations.

Bean Garden with Bull and Goat Saturday, June 29, 3-5 p.m. Fee: $35 per program
Come together with Bull and Goat from Snow's Farm Pot焊接和Goat from the Simmons Family to explore nature and history. As the day cools down, take a leisurely tour using the Adkins Arboretum's woodland paths and join in a game or two. Homemade root beer will also be offered.

Forest Music
Thursday, June 14, 3-4 p.m. Fee: $30 per program
Join us for an evening of light music, a cash bar and a relaxing atmosphere. All proceeds welcome donations.

Bean Garden with Bull and Goat Saturday, June 29, 3-5 p.m. Fee: $35 per program
Come together with Bull and Goat from Snow's Farm Pot焊接和Goat from the Simmons Family to explore nature and history. As the day cools down, take a leisurely tour using the Adkins Arboretum's woodland paths and join in a game or two. Homemade root beer will also be offered.

Forest Music
Thursday, June 14, 3-4 p.m. Fee: $30 per program
Join us for an evening of light music, a cash bar and a relaxing atmosphere. All proceeds welcome donations.

Bean Garden with Bull and Goat Saturday, June 29, 3-5 p.m. Fee: $35 per program
Come together with Bull and Goat from Snow's Farm Pot焊接和Goat from the Simmons Family to explore nature and history. As the day cools down, take a leisurely tour using the Adkins Arboretum's woodland paths and join in a game or two. Homemade root beer will also be offered.

Forest Music
Thursday, June 14, 3-4 p.m. Fee: $30 per program
Join us for an evening of light music, a cash bar and a relaxing atmosphere. All proceeds welcome donations.

Bean Garden with Bull and Goat Saturday, June 29, 3-5 p.m. Fee: $35 per program
Come together with Bull and Goat from Snow's Farm Pot焊接和Goat from the Simmons Family to explore nature and history. As the day cools down, take a leisurely tour using the Adkins Arboretum's woodland paths and join in a game or two. Homemade root beer will also be offered.